To whom it may concern,

I would like to comment on Mr McClusky's suggestion (S95) for the 2020-21 Victorian federal redistribution.

If the name of the federal seat of Corangamite or any other seat is not maintained, I totally agree with his comments and suggestions of adopting a traditional Aboriginal name for any new federal seats in Victoria. It would be a fitting way to honour and acknowledge the first peoples language and culture of the region.

Also, any suggested Aboriginal names if hopefully are taken on should have the endorsement from the appropriate traditional land owners.

Your Sincerely,
