Objection 662

Hi,

The only objection to alteration of Electoral Boundaries relates to how the decision has been made by the AEC, and did it take into consideration movements (temporary or permanent) that may have taken place due to the CoViD epidemic.

For many years I lived in the Benalong Electorate and I recall when the AEC changed the boundaries which meant Riverview (part of Lane Cove) moved to North Sydney. We now live in the North Sydney Electorate and it seems we are about to move again, this time to the Warringah Electorate.

I look forward to your comments.

Kind regards,

Jon. D
