To whom it may concern:

I am writing to object the abolition of the electorate of Higgins and the dividing of the stonnington community.

Higgins is a unique electorate mostly based around the stonnington LGA and dividing an intertwined constituency would cause significant backlash and harm the level of advocacy we receive. This proposal divides schools, sports team, local clubs from their patrons.

I also feel as though the name Higgins must be retained due to its historical significance and has been the seat of two prime ministers.
