

Objection 195

Simon Roberts

1 page

Higgins seat covers a large tract of south-eastern Melbourne and has more residential development, both current and in planning, than any other Victorian electorate. Given the accompanying population growth, there are more reasons to keep the current electoral status rather than eliminate the seat.