Our electorate of Higgins has had many fine Members and deserves to be continued.
My address would put me and my neighbours in Chisholm which is quite a different area and may change the complexion of our parliament .
We currently have an excellent Labor member who is a woman, and previously another female Liberal representative who was also excellent.
Communities are important and ours is excellent - no matter who is in government - it would be a great loss to be split into other electorates .
Please reconsider -.
Yours sincerely
Susie Palmer
